

Y TO START DRIVE FOR NEW BUILDING

Campaign December 10 to 17
Will Have $500,000
as Goal.

100 ARE ON COMMITTEE

Plans of a drive for $500,000 for a new Y. M. C. A. building in Ardmore have been completed by the Main Line Christian Association. The campaign, long discussed and anticipated, will begin on December 10 and continue to December 17.

The new building, which will serve the entire Main Line suburban territory including all of Lower Merion and Narberth, will be erected on the site acquired several years ago on the corner of Anderson and Montgomery avenues. The new home will replace the present structure on Lancaster pike below Ardmore avenue.

The campaign for the new building fund will be under the auspices and direction of the Main Line Christian Association Council, comprising about 100 men and women of the general Main Line district. Richard J. Hamilton, Ardmore banker and Lower Merion School Board director, is chairman of the Council.

The proposed building, its equipment and facilities, have been specially designed to accord with the needs of the Main Line district and will serve all members of the family with special adaptations for each.

A building used as a dormitory is now the only structure on the site upon which the new Y. M. C. A. will be erected.

Junior High League Plans Fall Opening

At a meeting of the Suburban Junior High School League held Wednesday at Lower Merion, Junior High School in Ardmore, final football arrangements were made and a committee appointed to complete the schedule for the football season. This schedule will be out next week.

The junior high schools represented were West Chester, Chester, Upper Darby, Haverford and Lower Merion.

Arrangements for a basketball league were made and plans for a schedule were laid. Norristown and Radnor have both dropped out of junior high school athletics. Norristown with the idea that intra-school athletics is the best for her plans and Radnor, seemingly because there is no one to promote the enterprise. This is regarded as unfortunate, because both of these schools should be leading contenders and proponents of interschool athletics. Lower Merion Junior High will miss the relationships with these two schools which it has had for the last few years.

Reports Cool Weather

The week ending Sunday, September 23, furnished the lowest temperature had in these parts since June, which was 46. Perhaps one of the nights later this week has been colder—we will see what weatherman Charles A. Decker reports next week. The highest temperature for the week was 77, not so high. Little rainfall was recorded.

Lower Merion High Opens Grid Season Tomorrow With Berwyn

At the flip of a coin tomorrow afternoon on the Lower Merion High School field in Ardmore Captain Bob Elmore will in all probability choose to kick. If so, "Perk" Scott will dig his boot into the initial kick-off of the 1928 football season at exactly 2.30 o'clock.

On the receiving end of the field will be the Berwyn High School, the initial opponent of Lower Merion in football each season as far back as can be remembered. Coach Adam expects a hard game, but he has a squad of fine football material which should be able to cope with any attack launched by a suburban team this season.

One of the best moves made by Coach Adam this season was the moving of Scott from center to guard. Scott is a fine interfeerer and can be brought out of the line on

REVIVE HARMONICA BAND

The Harmonica band, formed in the borough last spring by Walter Case, will re-commence rehearsals on Tuesday, October 2, in the Narberth Theater Hall at 4 P. M. All boys and girls of Narberth are invited to join. The only obligation is the purchase of a 50-cent harmonica, no charge being made for instruction. Prizes will be awarded monthly to the boy and girl making the greatest progress with the instrument.

This Saturday afternoon the champion harmonica player of Philadelphia will give a demonstration of the art at the Narberth Theater for the edification of aspiring young players.

WALZER TO RETIRE AT SEASON'S CLOSE

Baseball Manager Says This Is His Last Year at Club's Helm

WON TEN PENNANTS

The end of the present playing season will see the retirement of Fred Walzer as manager of the Narberth baseball team, according to his statement this week. Fred has been associated with Narberth baseball for twenty years and manager of the team for eighteen years. It has been during Mr. Walzer's regime as manager that Narberth has become firmly established on the baseball map.

"This is absolutely my last year," remarked Mr. Walzer, when questioned about his retirement. "I have given my best years to the cause of the Narberth Ball Club and now I wish to sit back and watch my boys in their onward march to future championships. But understand," continued the managerial manager, "I am still interested in the boys and will always be ready to back the team. My faith in them shall always be unlimited."

The connection between the Narberth Ball Club and Fred Walzer has been so close for nearly two decades that to think of one is to think of the other. In the eighteen seasons of baseball here, Walzer's teams have romped away with ten pennants. It began back in 1910 when the championship first came here. The feat was repeated in 1913, 1915, 1916, 1918, 1924, 1925. In addition to these, Narberth won the "three-year cup," signifying three consecutive championship teams.

The series with Bryn Mawr, a three-game affair to decide the champion for the whole year on the Main Line, will come off as scheduled. Manager Walzer's announced retirement not being effective until the close of the present season.

Borough Taxes Due

Monday, October 1, will be the last day on which borough taxes may be paid less the 5 per cent. discount and the school taxes without paying the 5 per cent. penalty. The Tax Collector, Edwin P. Dold, will be at the Narberth National Bank to receive taxes on Friday, September 28, from 8 A. M. to 3 P. M., and in the evening from 7 to 9 P. M. Saturday, September 29, the hours will be from 8 A. M. to 12 noon, and on Monday, October 1, from 8 A. M. to 3 P. M.

NARBERTH CAPTURES LEAGUE TITLE BY TROUNCING BERWYN SECOND TIME

McKenty Again Overthrows Visitors, Allowing Five Hits as Mates Turn in Twelve, Scoring Seventh Straight Win

By John Uberty

Over one thousand fans crowded the playground last Saturday to see Narberth trounce Berwyn, 10 to 3, for the second time in succession and capture the Main Line League Championship for the last half of the season. Again McKenty played a stellar role, holding the Berwyn sluggers to five hits and contributing one run himself.

This game, the last one of the regular season, provided one of the rarest combats seen on the home grounds for many moons. Berwyn was indeed a great team for pepper, fight and what they termed esprit de corps. They kept up a steady stream of chatter on the bench and dispensed more talk and oratory than a political convention. But all to no avail for Saturday was Narberth's day.

Up to the seventh a one-run lead was the slim margin by the Walzermen over the Doyle's Nursery Boys. Then the flood gates burst and the westerners were buried under an avalanche of six runs. It was McKenty's second consecutive triumph over Berwyn, and also Narberth's seventh straight victory, breaking the six-straight mark set last July.

The first marker of the combat was made by Humphries on McKenty's sacrifice. Gillespie accounted for two more with his smashing outfield bastinado, Gilfillan and Jeffries crossing the plate.

Griffith, erstwhile Villanova hurler, who clinched for Woodbury a league pennant in 1926, was charged with the defeat. It was in the fourth session that this grenadier returned to the bullpen complaining of a "bum" arm.

Tompkins, waving Verna's wagon-tongue, sent out a looper for one bagger and Kelly made first on an error. Griffith then connected with McKenty's "crooked ball" for a double, scoring Verna and Kelly.

The "Rube" curbed the challenges in the sixth and seventh while his mates scored one in the former and six in the latter, known for many past years, as the lucky seventh. Gilfillan started the seventh by getting on from another error at the expense of Henry, who was yanked from shortstop and replaced by Potter. McKenty sacrificed Bob to second and Jeffries struck out. Gillespie doubled to right; Gilfillan counting. Carter sent out a peppery grounder and Gillespie trekked home. Sullivan got on from another error and Babb, swinging for Fleck, cleared the lanes from his triple to deep center. Lindsay was hit by a pitched ball and took his base. Humphries shot a ven-

PREDICT BIG VOTE HERE FOR HOOVER

Republican Association at Picnic Hears Leaders' Forecasts.

SEE WOMAN VOTE HELP

Lower Merion and Narberth as well as Montgomery county as a whole will give big majorities to Hoover for President in the November election. This was the promise and forecast of speakers of local and county prominence who talked at the annual outing and picnic of the Lower Merion and Narberth Republican Association held Saturday afternoon at Wilson's Grove, Gladwyne, opposite the Merion Square School.

The affair was given by Township Treasurer Peter C. Hess, Lower Merion Republican leader and head of the association, who for the second year in succession was host to party workers at this outing. Republican leaders of State and county prominence were present and there was a total attendance of about 400. Prominent among those attending was a group of 125 women from all over the township and the borough.

Mrs. Mabelle Kirkbride, of Norristown, candidate for assembly on the county Republican ticket from

Girl Scouts to Resume Meetings

The regular meetings of the Girl Scouts will be resumed on Tuesday, October 2, at 7.15 P. M., at the scout house. It is hoped that all members of Troop 8 will be present at the appointed time. Any new girls over ten years of age wishing to join will be welcome.

Miss Marshall will be in charge of the local troop until a permanent captain is found. Anyone desirous of taking charge of the troop should communicate with the Field Captain, Miss Newhall, at scout headquarters, Athens avenue, Ardmore. Training in scout work is not necessary, just a deep interest in the girls and sufficient leisure.

Mrs. Woodcock Hostess

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church will meet on Monday, October 1 at 2.30 P. M., at the home of Mrs. Floyd Woodcock, 1128 Montgomery avenue.

Heads Post

W. Russell Green, local attorney, who was elected commander of the Harold D. Speakman Post, 356, American Legion, at the meeting of that organization last Monday night. Mr. Green, along with the other officers, will be installed at the next meeting of the Post on October 22d.

HOOVER CLUB HEAD-QUARTERS TO OPEN

New Organization to Use Store at 100 Narberth Avenue in Campaign

WILL START MONDAY

At the organization meeting of the Hoover Club held Wednesday morning at the home of the chairman, Mrs. E. C. Town, it was decided to open Hoover and Curtis headquarters on Monday, October 5, at 100 North Narberth avenue. (Store by Smedley.) Mrs. E. H. Cockrill will be in charge of the headquarters, which will be open from 11 A. M. to 6 P. M.

Hoover buttons, pictures and literature were distributed to the enthusiastic workers present. Many Hoover cards were also turned in. Many workers reported automobiles will be available to take voters to the polls on election day. Any voters who will be unable to get to the polls on election day may get the services of a car by calling Mrs. E. C. Griswold, 1 Chestnut avenue.

The following women have volunteered to help Mrs. Cockrill at the Hoover headquarters: Miss Emma Mueller, Mrs. R. C. Hoffman, Mrs. E. C. Griswold, Mrs. H. B. Murray, Mrs. Frank Scott, Mrs. C. C. Tyson, Mrs. Sarah Jones, Mrs. M. H. Nordblom, Mrs. R. A. Graham, Mrs. Nellie Anderson, Mrs. B. F. Anderson, Mrs. A. W. Martin, Mrs. H. C. Cotter, Mrs. J. A. Taylor, Miss Margaretta Runyon, Mrs. E. Holler.

To Send Delegates

The executive board of the Woman's Community Club met last Tuesday at the home of Miss Margaretta Runyon, at which time it was decided to send several delegates to the Federation of Women's Clubs convention to be held at Lancaster, Pa., on October 8. The Community Club's plans for the fall will be announced in next week's issue.

Service of Local Business Men Backed by Conscientious Care

This is your community. You are a partner in its prosperity.

If it grows and thrives, you profit in hard dollars and cents; if its growth is retarded and it goes backward, you lose. We have taken the former so much for granted that we have lost sight of the latter—particularly our own obligation in the matter.

You are a partner with everybody else here, and the community—which is all the partners collectively—can be only as prosperous and progressive as the sum of the prosperity and the progress of the individual partners.

The people of a community have it within their power to show their appreciation for the general prosperity this borough enjoys by considering Narberth merchants a little more in planning their shop-

GREEN IS CHOSEN POST'S COMMANDER

Election of New Slate Marks Opening of Legion's Active Season

PLAN BIG BANQUET

W. Russell Green, Esq., was elected commander of the Harold D. Speakman Post, No. 356, at a meeting last Monday night, which was featured by the election of a new slate of officers and the preparation of plans for the Legion's Armistice Day Banquet. Mr. Green succeeds Robert C. Collins, who has been at the helm of the local post for the past year.

The following officers were also elected: Vice Commander, Arthur L. Cook; Second Vice Commander, William H. Durbin; Finance Officer, John Mower, Jr.; Adjutant, Rowland K. Hewitt; Chaplain, Rev. Robert E. Keighton; Sergeant-at-Arms, William Blackledge; Executive Committee, A. Perry Redifer, Jr., W. Loxley Peebles, William W. Fretz, Robert A. Mueller, J. Lloyd Rickert.

The installation of the new officers will take place at the next regular meeting of the Post, October 22, at which the Ninth District Commander, Benjamin A. Howarth, will be present.

Inasmuch as Armistice Day this year falls on Sunday and will be celebrated on Monday, the Legion Banquet, which it is expected will be the biggest affair of the year in the community, will be held on Monday night, November 12, 1928, will also be the tenth anniversary of the signing of the armistice, and, as such, is the occasion for a celebration bigger than usual.

The banquet will be the scene of royal festivities. Efforts are being made to obtain a speaker prominent in national politics for the affair. William H. Durbin will have charge of ticket distribution and John Jones of refreshments and music. Last year's Legion banquet was attended by nearly one hundred and a much larger gathering is expected this year since the tenth anniversary will be commemorated.

Jeweler to Address Rotarians Next Week

Philip Kind, president of S. Kind & Sons, jewelers, will be the speaker at the meeting of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club Monday night. His subject will be "The Ethics of Modern Business."

Mr. Kind, who will appear on the program under direction of the Vocational Service Committee of the club, is well known as an entertaining speaker. He is well qualified to discuss the topic of business ethics, as he has long been a leader in this work.

He was one of the group instrumental in forming the Better Business Bureau of Philadelphia, and is a member of the Poor Richard Club. Rotarians from neighboring clubs have expressed their desire to attend, and members are planning to bring guests.

CONVENIENT CO-OPERATION CUTS COSTS FRIENDLY

People who like your goods come back to buy again. That's understandable. Human wants and desires are many, and they are increasing. People want good goods, and they go where they can get them. The phenomenal growth of this business since its inception fifteen years ago is proof that the housewives of Narberth like our merchandise and our methods, and it is a genuine pleasure to observe patron after patron come back again and again. We are dedicated to the idea of rendering an improved food service to you. To conduct a store not in the ordinary sense, but to make this business Narberth's logical PURE FOOD MARKET. We have won a patronage far beyond our ambitious expectations, but most important, we won the confidence of the community, and that means everything. We shall hold and respect that confidence through continued good service and worthy merchandise.

HOW TO BOOST

The merchants hereabouts are here to stay. They choose to locate here because they believe in this community.

They are not interested in a quick "clean-up," in running up sales records, but to grow steadily with the growth of the community.

Nothing can contribute to the growth of any place like a strong mercantile backing.

Nothing is asked of the merchants that they are not ready to give of freely.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

SHOULD A CATHOLIC VOTE FOR SMITH?

To the Editor of "Our Town":

The Catholic citizen appears to be at pretty much of a disadvantage in the present posture of affairs. If he has heretofore voted the Republican ticket and now intends to vote for Mr. Smith he might seem to be guilty of a religious prejudice which equals that against which he protests. Nevertheless, the American record reveals that where there has been a fair field and equal favor the Catholics do not follow a man of their faith on the score of faith alone. The experience of Mr. Ryan and Judge Bonniwell in their endeavors to be Governor of Pennsylvania should make that plain. In like manner New York, Chicago, Boston and other cities afford many instances where the Catholic candidate was left at the post by those of his own religious belief.

On the other hand it would be futile to deny that at this time Catholics by and large are likely to vote for Mr. Smith, and for reasons which ought not to be regarded as untoward or intolerant by their well-disposed non-Catholic brethren. In the history of the nation, a Catholic has had about the same chance of being President as a Chinaman. Irrespective of his talent or character, he was held unfit to serve his land in its highest office. He was not capable, it was said, of undivided allegiance to the flag and the destiny of the country was not safe under the direction of a man of such spiritual persuasions. Through the years the calumny has continued and the Catholic record of war and peace had little influence in changing what has been a widespread popular concept. If the Catholic called attention to the fact that his kind provided 40 per cent. of the American forces in the World War, out of a number which only comprised 20 per cent. of the population, he was put in the class of braggarts, and if he made bold to mention that the Declaration of Independence was native to his Catholic soul, harkening for its vitality to the precious tenets of the old faith, he was laughed to scorn. If he took pride, not credit, in the Catholic help accorded in the Revolution, in the huge $6,000,000 cash gift made by the French clergy to the Colonies when Louis could give no more, he was accused of talking through his hat. All around him, all his life, he has heard repeated absurdities and asinities which constant reiteration had translated into scurrilous and scandalous effects. He has been made to feel that he is a thing apart, unworthy to serve where honor and integrity and patriotism are involved, and all the while he knows that, if there is anything true and strong in his heart as a result of his religious teachings, a sterling devotion to his country's cause would come first on the list. Then arrives a long-delayed opportunity to a co-religionist, and immediately the hoary venom of the generations bursts forth with renewed fury. From all quarters and all sources the tempest blows, and common sense and decency are helpless against the invasion of an augmented host of wicked things that are not so.

What would a reasonable man reasonably expect the Catholic citizen to do when confronted by a spectacle as sorry as this? Shall he run to cover and thus help to perpetuate the hideous intolerance and constant triumph of a benighted bigotry, or shall he properly survive, as an act of stalwart patriotism and Christian charity, to prove that American fundamentals can be restored, and that after 150 years it is high time that a terrible treason shall be stilled in the land? How can the Catholic citizen best serve America on an occasion like this, and what is his conscientious obligation to the country of his birth or adoption? The patience of the Editor cannot be taxed beyond a mere outline of the extraordinary circumstances produced by the present situation.

Important as the considerations indicated may be, however, they are transcended by the necessity of examining the mettle of the man who sees the high office. The Catholics I know feel that Mr. Smith can serve exceedingly well. He does not stress industrial or economic supremacy as the main object of the nation's existence. There is evidence of his Catholicism here as compared to Hoover's Calvinism, Quaker though our competent Secretary may be. The Governor's "humanity" and his "liberalism" are not strange to those who share his religious roof-tree and that helps a very great deal with those who feel that legislative morality has little chance for permanency. It is well known that Catholics believe along these lines. Smith has kept clean amidst an environment that could easily soil, he has made good on every task assigned him, he has never failed to administer his important duties with a single eye to the public welfare, and there is every reason why he should be a splendid President of these United States.

His non-Catholic friends will not forget that the only thing he can do as Chief Executive without sanction of Congress is to pardon a Federal prisoner and they need not be afraid that the public offices will be swarming with papists with Alfred at the helm. Indeed, we would have a much better chance in this direction with Hoover, and that's a fact!

A Catholic vote for Smith shall not be the act of a bigot, nor shall it be kin with those ballots cast against him simply because he worships God according to those dictates of his own conscience.

Mrs. J. A. Hongler, of 319 Merion avenue, entertained her fortnightly bridge club on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. A. H. Mueller and Miss Florentina Mueller are spending a few days at the Hotel Dennis, Atlantic City, where Miss Mueller is recuperating from a recent operation.

Get New Members

At the regular meeting of the Narberth Fire Company last Tuesday night, seventeen new members from Merion avenue were reported enrolled by Jesse S. Harris, of Merion avenue. This was felt to be a most commendable piece of work, and a record number of new members to be secured by one man. Frederick A. Egmone, who has had general charge of membership work on the South Side, will co-operate with some workers on the north side in a membership campaign.

To Give Party

The Senior Luther League of the Lutheran Church will give a party on Saturday, September 29, at 8 P. M. This will be the first meeting after the summer vacation and all members and friends are cordially invited.

TO TEACH AT ROSEMONT

Frederick Hahn, head of the violin department of the Zeckwer-Hahn Philadelphia Musical Academy, will teach at Rosemont College, Rosemont, one day a week beginning in October.

TEA ROOM OWNER GIVEN TWO YEARS

Rosemont Prohibition Law Violator Is Also Fined $5000.

Stiff jail sentences and fines for violations of the prohibition law, and for burglary effecting cases from Lower Merion and Narberth, were among those imposed Tuesday at the county criminal court in Norristown. The sentences were pronounced by Judge Williams, who had heard the cases previously.

Gene Dupont, operator of the Blue Door Tea House on Lancaster Pike, in Rosemont, was given a $5000 fine and a two-year jail sentence for violation of the prohibition law. Lieutenant Mullin, of the Lower Merion police, was the principal witness against him when the case was heard.

Mullin headed the police squad which raided the Blue Door on July 22 and confiscated a five-gallon jug of whiskey, six one-quart bottles of the same contraband, and a bottle of coloring.

Another sentence Tuesday was that imposed on John McCourt, of Narberth, who was given two and one-half to ten years in the Eastern Penitentiary, on charges of attempted burglary and carrying concealed deadly weapons. He was arrested on suspicion after the home of John Albrecht, nurseryman at Narberth, had been entered in August and subsequently confessed to Lieutenant Mullin and Sergeant Brown, of the Lower Merion police, after a grilling. McCourt got nothing for his attempt, as he was scared from the Albrecht home before he was able to take anything.

A third sentence was that imposed on Harry Krescholek, who was given from two to six years for breaking into a tool house owned by Patrick McCabe, near West Manayunk, in July and stealing sticks of dynamite. An accomplice, William Boyle, who was arrested at the same time, is now out of the jurisdiction of the Montgomery County Courts, having fled while out on $2500 bail. The two men were caught early one morning by Officer Tommy Loughran, of the Lower Merion police, after an exciting chase over the Schuylkill Division tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Barmouth station.

To Talk on Africa

A short informal talk by the Rev. Austin Paul, of the African Inland Mission, will be given at the Presbyterian Church on Saturday evening at 7:30. The Rev. Paul, who is to conduct the services at the Presbyterian Church this Sunday, is giving this talk in response to requests of those who have heard of his many unique and interesting experiences. Slides of his work will be shown as well as a number of African curios the Rev. Paul has collected. All interested are invited, particularly the young people.

Stamp Club to Fore

The Narberth Stamp Club will hold an important meeting on Monday, October 1, at the Presbyterian Church at 8 P. M., at which time officers will be elected. A speaker has been secured, who will talk on matters of interest to the club. All interested are welcome.

Roses Win

The football season is under way as is evidenced by the fact that the Hampden Roses, a Narberth boys' eleven, conquered the Brookhurst All-Stars by the score of 20-0. The touchdowns were made by F. Whittingham, Heald and Funk Humphries. F. Whittingham also kicked two of the extra points. The star of the game was "Bang" Heald, with a 55-yard run for a touchdown. The Roses would be glad to hear from any team of the ages 10 to 12.

FEDERATION DRIVE BEGINS IN OCTOBER

Welfare Organization Is Planning to Raise Big Sum of Money.

The Welfare Federation's eighth annual campaign begins October 22 and will continue until November 2.

The Federation comes before the public this year for the first time with a record of success, proving its usefulness in the community and determination of the public to support it to the fullest extent.

Records recently completed show that the Federation campaign last fall went "over the top." A total of $3,290,461.92, the largest amount ever contributed in any of the Federation's campaigns, was raised for the maintenance of the Federation's member agencies throughout this year. The goal last year was $3,289,673.60.

In view of this achievement, the Federation expects that the public of Philadelphia and vicinity will not fail when this year's campaign begins. The exact amount of the objective this fall has not been finally determined, but conservative estimates indicate the amount will exceed last year's objective by more than $100,000.

Confidence in the result of this year's campaign is also based on the fact that the organization of the corps of volunteer campaign workers will be greater and more efficient this fall than they were last. Last year a total of more than 4000 volunteers were engaged in the campaign; this year it is probable the number will exceed 5000.

The slogan of the forthcoming Federation campaign, to be used in connection with the Federation posters, is "Spare Them a Share!" This slogan, written by Miss Elizabeth B. Hart, 162 East Walnut lane, Germantown, was selected as the best among several thousand submitted in an open competition early this summer.

This year the number of agencies included in the Welfare Federation is 126, several changes having been made during the spring and summer. The Kensington Day Nursery, 2121 East Dauphin street, has been admitted as a member and will participate in the fund raised this year. The Clovernook Home for Children, 3301 Ashburner street, Holmesburg, has discontinued its work and the boys and girls formerly in its charge are being cared for through other organizations, and the activities of the Philadelphia Association of Day Nurseries have been merged with the Children's Department of the Council of Social Agencies of the Federation.

The Federation campaign territory this year is the same as last. This area approximates 785 square miles with a population in excess of 2,275,000 and embraces all of the city of Philadelphia, all of Delaware county except the city of Chester, the Main Line section as far as Paoli, and the lower portion of Montgomery county exclusive of Phoenixville and Norristown.

Edward Hopkinson, Jr., who acted as general chairman of the 1927 campaign committee, again will serve in that capacity, and he will be assisted by J. Heron Crossman, Jr., Jay M. Kyle and Mr. Elkins as vice chairmen. Mr. Crossman again will be in charge of the Group Solicitation Department of the campaign organization.

"While the prospects for this year's campaign look bright," said Mr. Hopkinson, "it must be remembered that we have a big task before us. Many problems which the campaign last year failed to solve, must be faced again this year."

"The campaign goal last year was fixed at a rock bottom figure the Federation trustees hoping that industrial conditions would be sufficiently favorable to enable the agencies to scrape through this year with the reduced budget finally approved. Unfortunately, the reverse occurred."

"Unemployment in certain lines became acute last winter and spring, with the result that unforeseen burdens were laid upon the hospitals, relief organizations and child-caring institutions. These agencies utilized every resource to meet the need, but in spite of limiting their assistance, deficits became inevitable for the current year.

"The problems of the Federation agencies are community problems, and the extent of their social service work for the sick, the needy, the handicapped, the aged, as well as the work in the more positive fields of constructive and preventive endeavor, is determined entirely by the way the community supports the Federation's annual campaign."

"The Welfare Federation hopes that the response to its appeal this year will be sufficiently great to enable its member agencies to meet adequately the unescapable needs of the community."

The purpose of the Welfare Federation is to assist in cutting down the percentage of money, that might otherwise go to waste, by bringing about a minimum cost of administration. The entire cost of maintaining the Federation last year amounted to less than 5½ cents out of every dollar raised, which is believed to be the low record in all cities in this country where charity funds are raised on a community basis.

To Hold Annual Outing

Tomorrow afternoon the men of the Narberth Presbyterian Church will hold their annual outing at Valley Forge. Cars will leave the church at Grayling and Windsor avenues at 1:45 P. M.

All the men of the congregation and their friends are invited to join in the event. Entertainments and games have been arranged, and the customary dinner will be served at a nominal cost in the pavilion. If the weather is stormy, the gathering will be held at the church.

Oldsters Need Holiday

As Well As Youngsters

"In the great desire of officials to protect the health welfare of the child, that of the parents is sometimes overlooked. And nothing emphasizes this fact more than the general solicitation that everyone has for the children's vacation," says Dr. Theodore B. Appel, Secretary of Health.

"However much the youngsters require wholesome recreation and change during the vacation period, grown-ups must realize that they too are in the need of diversion and rest. Recently, a man who has steadily worked for two years, bought a ticket for Europe and gave it to his 24-year-old daughter to use. Father continues at his desk!"

"Now the motive in this particular case was perfectly fine, but those parents who live for their children in some instances would be better off, and in the end would do much more for their children, if they would live a little bit for themselves."

"Sacrifice is a parental instinct. However, when it is carried to the point of depriving one of a needed rest in order that the younger people in the family may get it all, then such sacrifice is no longer logical or sensible."

"Older people owe it to themselves to get away from the daily grind of office, factory or housework. And quite as much as the children are apt to need rest, fresh air and a severance from exacting routine."

"Therefore, if you are among the hundreds of parents who, during the past summer, have deprived themselves of a vacation in order that the children might have one, consider this question carefully. If necessary, make a little more sacrifice and take a vacation yourself. The chances are that you need one for your own sake for your children's sake and your health's sake."

Auto Club Warns

Motorists in Jersey

Pennsylvania motorists are warned by the Keystone Automobile Club that a clause in the new vehicle law of New Jersey permits justices of the peace to fine and imprison motorists for minor infractions of the law. Heretofore their power, as in this State, was limited to imposition of jail sentence only in default of payment of fine.

"The penalty clause in the new law," says a statement of the club, "is so manifestly unfair that we have entered vigorous protest against it and will exert every effort to have it repealed at the next session of the legislature. For the present, however, this obnoxious clause remains in effect, and it is well for Pennsylvania motorists traveling in New Jersey to recognize the danger and act accordingly."

"It is the intention of the Keystone Automobile Club to give every legal assistance to motorists who may be unjustly treated under this Act. No motorist will go to jail for a parking violation or other infraction of the law if we can help it."

"A similar clause appeared in the first draft of the Pennsylvania Vehicle Code last year, but was rejected by the legislature when the club's Legislative Committee pointed out its significance."

"In a letter to William L. Dill, Motor Vehicle Commissioner of New Jersey, we said:

"Motorcar owners ought not to be put in a position where they are absolutely at the mercy of a magistrate or justice of the peace armed with the authority to mulct them of fines and send them to jail. Without in the least impugning the integrity or motives of those charged with active enforcement of the law, we nevertheless feel that this provision of the Act imposes a harsh and uncalled-for burden on motorists and opens wide the door to those members of the minor judiciary who in the past have not scrupled to use their offices for mercenary ends."

HAVERFORD OPENS WITH 293 ON ROLL

Comfort Announces Changes in College Faculty for Fall Term.

LIMIT USE OF AUTOS

Haverford College opened for its ninety-sixth year Thursday at 9 A. M. The enrollment for the new college year was 293 men, of which 80 were freshmen and 11 graduate students. Nineten States and six foreign countries are represented in the Haverford enrollment.

Several changes in the Haverford faculty for the coming year have been announced by President William Wistar Comfort. Dr. Leigh W. Reid, of the department of mathematics, and Dr. Raynor K. Kelsey, of the department of history, have returned to the college after sabatical year leaves. Dr. Elihu Grant, professor of Biblical literature, will resume his teaching duties after an eventful spring and summer spent in archaeological research in the Holy Land.

Several changes have been made course in applied psychology and in the department of philosophy, and are the result of the addition of Dr. Douglas V. Steere, of Oxford and Harvard, to the Haverford will also take over some of Dr. Rufus M. Jones' philosophy courses while Dr. Jones will conduct new courses in the history of philosophy. Dr. Steere is a native of Michigan.

John G. Herndon, Jr., a graduate faculty. Dr. Steere will conduct a of Wisconsin and Pennsylvania, has been added to the Haverford faculty and will give courses during the coming year in American Government and in political science.

Dr. Paul Cliff Kitchen, of the University of Pennsylvania, will lecture in English, and Arthur F. Gallagher, of the University of British Columbia, has been added as an Instructor in Chemistry.

Work has progressed all summer at Haverford on the new Hilles Laboratory of applied science. This building will be opened for the second half of the new college year and will materially increase the facilities of the college for practical engineering experimentation.

A letter has been sent by President Comfort in behalf of the Board of Managers to all new men advising them of the college rule against possession of firearms on the campus and the regulation limiting of permission to use automobiles to the dean of the college.

ALUMNI PLAN FOR MANY NEW EVENTS

Want Roosevelt to Lecture. Vote Donation to Byrd Expedition.

OFFICERS INSTALLED

Installation of officers and plans for activities during the 1928-29 season featured the September meeting of directors of the Lower Merion High School Alumni Association, the Ardmore National Bank.

Five representatives of the class of 1918 requested that plans be made for celebrating the tenth anniversary of their class this year. Edward J. Buckley, Spencer Stillwagon, Leo Rountree, Margaret Kerrigan and Margaret Florey presented the petition, which was filed for later action.

Edward Buckley and Spencer Stillwagon were appointed a committee in charge of arrangements for the annual Lower Merion-Radnor Alumni football game, to be held one week after the varsity teams clash this fall. The alumni game will be played this year at Ardmore, it was announced.

A donation of $50 was voted

Commander Richard E. Byrd, who was the chief speaker at a lecture sponsored by the association for last year. The contribution has been sent to aid him in his Antarctic expedition.

President Buckley was directed to communicate with Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., in an effort to have him deliver his lecture on "The River of Doubt" as the feature event of the association's season.

In order that the alumni's annual task of judging Senior Class historical essays may be lightened this year, Miss Florence Kerrigan was made chairman of a committee to seek co-operation of a Bryn Mawr College English composition class.

Hold First Session

The first meeting of the Evangel Circle of King's Daughters will be held on Wednesday, October 3, at 1 P. M., at the west wing of the Community Building.

Police Pension Fund Ahead of Last Year

Contributions to the Lower Merion Police Pension Fund so far this year total about $12,000 according to Evan L. James, secretary. This is $1205 ahead of the amount collected the same period last year, but still more contributions are needed.

Donations of all sizes are solicited for the fund. Some individual contributions have been as high as $500 each, but many are in $5 and $10 lots. The fund is also supported by dues of $2 a month, paid by every member of the Lower Merion force.

Letters soliciting contributions were sent out early this year to all householders of Lower Merion as well as to Narberth, which borough also gets police protection from the township. Responses to these are still coming in and those who have not yet contributed may do so.

The fund, which has been in existence for several years, has now grown to the total of $75,000. This money is invested and the proceeds used to defray expenses of the fund. At present there are three beneficiaries of the fund, each drawing a check of $50 a month or a total between them of $1800 a year.

LOCAL BUSINESS MEN

to keep in the bank, but upon the capacity of his business to use credit in serving the community.

The merchants, the local newspaper and the banks are "Three Men in a Boat," and the success with which they navigate their craft through all the difficulties that beset business today depends upon their faith in each other and their disposition to pull together at the oars.

No one can place a value on the service rendered by the business men of the community. Take the druggist, for instance. He is there to save the life of a member of the family if the prescription is needed and he is right in the neighborhood to render this service in time. He has to pay special taxes, or license fees as an apothecary, a retailer of narcotics, a cigar dealer, etc. The druggist is the most indispensable merchant in his community; and more particularly, when one considers the time and cost of his professional training, the long hours spent and money invested in the business, together with the tremendous burden of responsibility that rests with the pharmacist.

For instance, more than one out of every 25 prescriptions presented to pharmacists for compounding contains some kind of error, which, in some cases, if remained unchecked, would result in fatalities—a check which the pharmacist provides between the physician and his patient.

If the public was aware of the extreme vigilance, prudence, and thoughtfulness exercised by the druggist in compounding prescriptions, they would as soon question the price of a prescription as the cost of a major surgical operation.

Don't impoverish your town by taking the money out of it. Don't take train or bus for a place distant to buy there. In the former instance you are making some rich corporation richer—at your expense—and in latter instance you are helping some big city store pay its heavy overhead by the higher profit tacked onto every single article you buy.

TROOP OPENS SEASON

Wynnewood Boy Scouts Have Active Year Planned.

The Delaware and Montgomery Counties Pine Tree Troop, located at All Saints' Church, Wynnewood, has opened meetings for the coming season. An adventurous overnight camping trip up the Delaware River to the Unimi Lodge House at Treasurer Island started the year's program with the usual Pine Tree pep. The romance of hiking over the mountains and boating in the river, along with the urgent challenge of the wild to the Pine Tree Scout was sufficient stimulus for the Patrol Leaders to form a tentative program for the year, one which fairly bubbled over with action.

Monday, September 17, was met with unusual enthusiasm on the part of the Wynnewood Scouts, for that meant the first meeting. Six new boys were welcomed and duly enrolled. Chandler and Philip Pitcher, of Narberth, two Eagle Scouts formerly with the Yonkers Council, were enrolled. Ralph Ross, William Zillgar and William Spears, formerly with East Lansdowne Troop No. 1, were also enrolled.

This makes the Pine Tree Troop a full troop on the first meeting and the prospects for the season to come look bigger than ever. The drum and bugle corps will hold their first practice next Monday under the direction of Mr. Elbherson, assistant scoutmaster.

Plans for a Father and Son Pow-Wow, overnight hike to the New Council at Camp Delmont have been made and an attendance of 60 is expected.

Closely following the Pow-Wow will come the Counties reunion at the Academy of Music. The Drum and Bugle Corps will turn out in full. In all, the year's program is fairly crammed with excitement and instruction.

AT THE THEATER

Whether you are interested in golf, or not, you will find enjoyment in "Golf Widows," at the Narberth Theater this Saturday. The plot revolves around the persons, who are neglected because of the game and the complications which arise when wives revolt. Into the fray are drawn an accommodating insurance agent, a wealthy club man and a charming girl, sweetheart of the policy writer.

The action is filmed against a background of Hollywood and Tia Juana in Mexico, with some unusually picturesque airplane shots, taken from the cabin of a passenger craft flying between Los Angeles and San Diego.

The cast is headed by Vera Reynolds, and Harrison Ford, with John Patrick, Sally Rand, Kathleen Key, Vernon Dent and Will Stanton prominent in the supporting cast. The picture was made under the direction of Erle C. Kenton from a story by W. Scott Darling.

The comedy is spontaneous and most of the situations are entirely new, furnishing a unique photoplay that will keep any audience in a continuous uproar.

Critics who hailed with delight David Butler's first Fox picture will again have ample opportunity to cheer when "Win That Girl," Butler's new picture, opens at the Narberth Theater next Monday and Tuesday.

Sue Carol and David Rollins, two attractive juveniles, are featured in this Saturday Evening Post story adapted by John Stone. The story was written by James Hopper. It addresses itself to a family feud and the overwhelming ambition of the Nortons to win a football contest over the Browns.

Butler, himself a great sport-lover, is said to have done himself proud in the comedy situations. Janet MacLeod, a six-foot Pasadena, Calif., girl, is said to be a riot with Roscoe Karns in the love scenes wherein an attempt is made to develop a superman for the football championship.

One of the finest love stories ever filmed, as well as a remarkably vivid and colorful portrayal of the rich life of the Middle West, is to be found in the screen version of the late Gene Stratton-Porter's famous novel "Lad-die," showing Wednesday and Thursday at the Narberth Theater. Lea Meehan, who produced and directed the picture for F. B. O., is the noted author's son-in-law, and under his sympathetic touch the book lives again and its characters move in a surprisingly lifelike and exact fidelity to the original.

John Bowers does some of the greatest work of his career in the title role, and Bess Flowers makes a lovely and appealing Pamela. Such screen favorites as David Torrence, Eugenia Gilbert, Arthur Clayton, Fanny Midgley, Neil Neely, John Fox, Jr., and little Gene Stratton.

Now Every Minute Sees Another GENERAL ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR Placed In Some American Home

LAST YEAR, General Electric Refrigerators stood in 29th place in the household market. Today they are first! They were being placed in homes at the rate of one a day. Now they are going into American homes at a rate of one a minute every day.

A Nation-Wide Organization Has Been Created

At the beginning of 1927, fourteen dealers handled the General Electric Refrigerator. Today there are more than 5500. Where only 70 people were engaged, today there are 11,500.

This swift but sound growth is a tribute to the newest product of the Research Laboratories of General Electric—a complete justification for the fifteen years of research and experiment which were put into the development of this "years ahead" refrigerator.

Public Preference Has Been Won

The miracle of general public acceptance, all in a year's time, has come to pass—an acceptance which is keeping nine factories running at top speed.

Thanks are due to the foresight of the electric light and power men of the nation who have brought electric service to eighteen million homes. They have made it possible for General Electric Refrigerators, in ever-growing numbers, to aid in reducing the annual seven hundred million dollar loss in food spoilage in American homes.

PETERS MADE HEAD OF L. M. COMMITTEE

Is One of Three New Officers Chosen by Republicans Tuesday.

Assemblyman Fred C. Peters, of Ardmore, was elected chairman of the Lower Merion Republican Committee at an organizational meeting of that body held Tuesday night in the commission chamber of the township building at Ardmore. He succeeds Squire I. Warner Arthur, of Rosemont, whose death recently made vacant the post which he had held for a long number of years.

Other officers elected by the committee were vice president, Mrs. Theodore E. Benade, of Cynwyd; secretary, Mrs. Florence Carter, of General Wayne district, and treasurer, Peter C. Hess, of Bala.

Mrs. Benade succeeds Mrs. Herman L. Schwartz, formerly committeewoman for North Ardmore, who did not seek re-election to the committee when she changed her residence to Haverford last spring. Mrs. Carter was made secretary to replace William J. Byrnes, Jr., Ardmore, secretary of the Lower Merion School Board, who is in Maryland recuperating from an operation for appendicitis, which was followed by a stroke. Mr. Hess was re-elected.

Due to the death of Squire Arthur, the withdrawal of Mrs. Schwartz and the illness of Mr. Byrnes, Treasurer Hess was the only officer of the old committee active in office. As such, he issued the call for the session held Tuesday night and presided as chairman during the meeting.

Mr. Hess, who is also township Republican leader, in addressing the committee members from the chair, told them that they need not worry about getting out the vote for the Presidential election in November.

"This will be one time when the voters will come out of their own accord and will turn out in vast numbers. We need not worry about getting out the vote, but rather about handling it when it gets to the polls . . . seeing that the voters are promptly handled and that there will be no delays to cause confusion and congestion. Every vote will count, but I have no doubt that Lower Merion as well as Narberth will turn in an overwhelming vote for Hoover and the entire Republican national ticket."

Mr. Hess called attention to the outing and picnic of the Lower Merion and Narberth Republican Association which will be held tomorrow at Wilson's Grove, Gladwyne, opposite the Merion Square School. Congressman Henry W. Watson had accepted an invitation to speak at the affair and their would be others he said. Mr. Hess is host to the association at this outing which is an annual affair. Everyone interested in township government, whether a Republican or not, has been extended an invitation to be the usual corn roast and refreshments and a big entertainment program. Women were extended an invitation to attend as well as the men.

Committee members asking instructions about registering voters in their districts who may not yet be enrolled were told that this might be done on the day of election by having a duly qualified elector of the district vouch for the applicant and having him sign an affidavit to the effect that he had lived in the district the required length of time and had paid a county or State tax within the past two years. Election officers are empowered to make out these affidavits.

TELLS OF HIGHEST COURT

Library Buys New Book on Supreme Court, by Charles E. Hughes.

Among the new books just purchased by the Community Library is "The Supreme Court of the United States," by Charles Evans Hughes, who, as everyone will recall, was a member of the Supreme Court for several years prior to 1916 when he resigned after being nominated for the Presidency by the Republican party.

When the Narberth Street Improvement Association made the Community Library its residuary legatee to the amount of $2.40, it was with the request that the money be used for the purchase of a book with reference to civic or governmental affairs. This new book by Mr. Hughes was purchased by that fund.

This book is made up of six lectures which Mr. Hughes delivered at Columbia University last year and is concerned with a careful study of the backgrounds of the Court, its methods of working, and the constitutional principles which guide it. The chapter on "The Court at Work" is especially interesting because it gives an inside account of the methods by which a case is discussed and decided by the nine Judges of the Supreme Court in their private conferences.

This book reveals an incident which is amazing to all laymen and may be surprising to many lawyers. It is recorded that at one time the Supreme Court had given its decision on a case and had denied a rehearing, but the plaintiff was still dissatisfied and retained the late Gen. B. F. Butler, who went into open court and asked for permission to file a petition for a second rehearing. The Court was amazed at such audacity but Butler stuck to his guns, succeeded in filing his petition, the case was reopened and in the course of a few months a second decree was ordered which reversed the first one.

PREDICT BIG VOTE

the third legislative district, struck the keynote of the speech making which began shortly after 2:30 in the afternoon. She declared that the Montgomery county would give the entire Hoover-Curtis ticket a big majority and added that the woman voters of the county would be responsible for a large part of this vote.

May Depend on County.

"There was some opposition here years ago to giving women the ballot," Mrs. Kirkbride declared. "But this will be one election when the Republicans may thank heaven that they have it. The women will surpass themselves in getting out the vote for Hoover and Curtis."

Mrs. Kirkbride, who comes from Missouri, also told of a recent trip back home. She narrated discussions which she had with farmers in that State about the farm relief problem and declared that she found the Republicans stand on this issue meeting with support and approval.

The first speaker of the afternoon was George C. Corson, chairman of the Montgomery County Republican Committee, who likewise forecast support of the national ticket.

"Montgomery, as usual, may be depended upon to turn in a big Republican vote," he stated. "There is no doubt but there will be a big majority recorded here for the entire ticket."

Other speakers were State Senator James S. Boyd, of Norris-town, and W. Russell Green, of Narberth. Mr. Green reviewed the Republican national platform and declared that the election of Hoover would insure a continuance of Coolidge administration policies for which he had only praise.

The feature speaker of the afternoon, Congressman Henry W. Watson, of Langhorne, was expected to sound the keynote for the meeting, but met with delay in motoring here from Washington for the affair. Arriving along around 4:30 P. M. shortly before the dinner was served, he spoke briefly. He told of his years in politics as a Congressman and compared the three Democratic administrations which he had witnessed with those of the Republicans.

Women Aid With Dinner.

The speech-making over, dinner which had been prepared by a committee of Gladwyne women, was served by them to the hundreds in attendance. There was roast corn, baked ham and all the usual trimmings.

Among the guests of honor at the affair were Secretary of the Commonwealth Charles Johnson, of Norris-town, who is also county Republican leader; Register of Wills Robert Miller, Recorder of Deeds William G. Hower, of Bryn Mawr; newly appointed County Commissioner William Ridgway, of Bethayres, and Dr. Wilson, treasurer of Abington township.

A telegram of regret was read from Auditor General Martin, who was unable to attend. Assemblyman Fred C. Peters, of Ardmore, newly-elected head of the Lower Merion Republican Committee, was also to have attended, but was prevented by the death of his father in Massachusetts.

Honor Elmore Again; Made Class President

At the senior class elections held at Lower Merion High School Friday, Robert Elmore, of Cynwyd, was elected president. Bob has been president of his class all the way through high school, is also captain of this year's football team, president of the Boys' Hi-Y Club and head of the athletic association.

Dorothy Gimber, another Cynwydian, was elected vice president; Grace Adams, of Bryn Mawr, secretary, and Ruth Hopkins, of Narberth, treasurer.

The junior and sophomore classes will hold their elections next week. Much time was spent this week in preparation for the first football game of the season Saturday, hence the postponement of these elections.

Elections of cheer leaders was held on Tuesday and this was followed by an outdoor rally in preparation for the game with Berwyn Saturday. Here the cheer leaders got sufficient practice to enable them to win the game for the football team if the eleven should falter.

Out of a large number of candidates the following boys were elected cheer leaders: Mills, Ramsey, Vogt and Mantz. Mills and Ramsey were members of the cheering squad last year. Vogt was also a cheer leader last season, but in the junior high.

Music School Offers Grand Piano as Prize

The Main Line School of Music, Ardmore, offers an award of a Steinway Grand Piano for the best performance of selected numbers in a contest of advanced students. Other awards are offered to the player who is second in merit, and to the student who does the most intelligent work.

The contest will be held in June, 1929. The names of the judges will be announced later and will include one director of the school.

Registration should be made at once as lessons begin on October 5, and no applications will be received after November 15.

The teachers of the school are: Voice, Leroy Telbbs, of New York; piano, Florence Leonard, Louisa Hopkins, Rosalie Murray, William Tumbleston; violin, Frederick Cook, Dayton Henry, Josephine Gemberling; cello and ensemble, Adolph Vogel; guitar and banjo, S. M. Lapetina. The directors are Florence Leonard, Managing Director; Louisa Hopkins and Adolph Vogel.

Light Pole Broken, Street Lights Out

A curious mishap occurred on Wednesday night when an electric light pole on Wynnewood avenue between Elmwood avenue and the P. R. R. tunnel was snapped off about 10 feet from the ground. The accident put out the street lights on the South side in that vicinity, but did not affect the house lights. The pole was in a sound condition so it was surmised that a heavy truck ran up against it, causing it to snap. The broken section fell across the sidewalk, leaving a sharp pencil-like splinter sticking up from the remaining 10 feet or so of the pole.

This accident recalls a similar one which happened at almost identically the same place several years ago. An electric light pole was broken in the course of a storm and fell across the road onto a passing automobile. The weight of its fall, however, was broken by telephone wires and the erstwhile tree trunk came to rest upon the hood of the car. Neither of the two occupants was injured.

Veterans Elect New Members; Plan Benefit

Plans for a motion picture benefit to be given in the near future was the feature topic of discussion at a meeting of the newly formed Miller-Merkle Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, held Monday night in the Cynwyd Fire Hall.

Comrade Nicholas Carter was appointed chairman of the committee which is to set a date and make arrangements for the affair. He will be assisted by John Conway, Herman P. Dolan and William Supper.

Three new members, admitted at the meeting, brought the membership of the post which is made up largely of veterans from Bala-Cynwyd and Narberth, to 28. The newcomers were Walter Buchanan, of West Philadelphia; Nicholas Carter, formerly a member of the Lawton Post, biggest one in Philadelphia, and William Groff, of Cynwyd.

The local post meets twice a month, on the second and fourth Mondays of the month.

Auxiliary Meets

The Women's Auxiliary of the Narberth Presbyterian Church will meet on Thursday, October 4, from 10 to 2. Luncheon at one. It is requested that articles be brought for the Bazaar for the "Home for Widows and Single Women."

REDS WIN SALE CONTEST

Sell Two More Season Tickets Than Whites in A. A. Campaign.

In the campaign for the sale of season tickets which was inaugurated the past week by the Athletic Association at Lower Merion High School 670 tickets for total receipts amounting to $752 were sold.

In order to increase the interest in the campaign the students were divided into two sections, one division called Reds and the other Whites. Leaders in each room were appointed. The Reds won the contest by selling 336 tickets, but the Whites were close behind with 334. The Reds also turned in more money than the Whites by the sum of $4. Grace Adams, the newly elected senior class secretary, turned in the highest individual sale, a total of $80. Peggy Morris turned in $60.

Tickets to outsiders sold for $2 and to the pupils and members of the school $1. Tickets for the entire football season may be obtained from Mr. Nash at the senior high school.

omous double to left, admitting George and Lindsay, while Gillfillan, batting again in the same inning, tallied the third out.

Jimmy Noblitt, rival pitching ace, twice conqueror of the Walzermen, entered the fracas in the last inning and was responsible for the tourists' lone tally as the game came to an end. The crafty hurler scored from third, where he was sent via the sacrifice system and scored as Burk, another last minute substitute, was being played higher and thither finally to be run down on second, only after Jimmy has slipped home somewhat unnoticed.

And thus terminated one of those rare sights of the diamond, by which a championship is won. Berwyn, 1926 champions and 1927 runners-up, (Gladwyne winning that year) put up a stubborn fight to the last ditch, leaving the field defeated but not without honor.
